| Key information about the | Spiritual | Moral | Social | Cultural |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| subject and schemes of work | | | | |
| | | | | |
| Maths is a core subject that is | Sp4 - Developing deep | M5 -Pupils use Maths in real | So1 - Problem solving skills | C2 - Mathematics is a |
| studied in all key stages. | thinking and questioning | life contexts, applying and | and group work are | universal language with a |
| Through various mini | the way in which the | exploring the skills required | fundamental to | myriad of cultural inputs |
| investigations and activities | world works promotes | to solve various problems. | Mathematics, through | throughout the ages. These |
| built into lessons, SMSC, | the spiritual growth of | | creative thinking, discussion, | are looked at in a variety of |
| (Spiritual, Moral, Social and | students. SP5 - In Maths | M3 - Students focus on why | explaining and presenting | tasks and also reinforced |
| Cultural) is being delivered in | lessons pupils are often | businesses and retail outlets | ideas. | when talking about using |
| most Maths lessons | encouraged to delve | have a sale and how they | | Maths in a future career or |
| | deeper into their | create a price and discount | So4 - Students are always | adult life. |
| | understanding of | based on the product being | encouraged to develop their | |
| | Mathematics and how it | sold. M1 - By looking at the | Mathematical reasoning | C5 - By investigating |
| | relates to the world | morals that can lead to | skills, communicating with | exchange rates from various |
| | around them. | discounts and working out | others and explaining | currency from around the |
| | | increases and decreases in | concepts to each other. | world, students can look at |
| | SP4 - Students are given | price, students can | | foreign travel and how |
| | plenty of opportunities in | understand how a | So5 - Self and peer | much money is worth in |
| | all year groups to | successful business can | reviewing are very | other countries. |
| | challenge themselves and | work. | important to enable pupils | |
| | think about what they are | | to have an accurate grasp of | C4 - Students also develop |
| | being asked. | M5 - By developing their | where they are and how | an understanding of the |
| | | maths based skills in all | they need to improve. | cultural context that is |
| | SP6 - By receiving praise | lessons, students are able to | Working together in pairs or | behind many key |
| | and guidance of how to | work on morally how they | groups and supporting | mathematicians that they |
| | improve their work, | can use these to their | others is a key part of Maths | study. |
| | students feel a sense of | advantage as adult in real | lessons. | These include: |
| | pride when they are able | life scenarios. | | Fibonacci and |
| | to demonstrate their | | So2 - Students are given the | number sequences |
| | developed knowledge | M2 / M5 - Students can look | opportunity on a regular | Pythagoras' |
| | and understanding. | at statistical data that is | basis to work out their | theorem. |
| | | based on real life situations | solutions on the board at | |

| SP1 - All students are | and then reflect in a moral | the front and this then | |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------|------------------------------------|--|
| given the chance to | way what the context is in | allows full class dialogue | |
| analyse data and look at | relation to what they have | and discussion to take place. | |
| how this can be puzzling | to solve. | | |
| and difficult. SP4 - By | | So5 - By sharing peer | |
| completing differentiated | | feedback and offering | |
| tasks based on the level | | guidance to each other how | |
| of understanding if this | | work can be improved, also | |
| area, students can | | allows all students with | |
| experience tough work | | good social skills for adult | |
| that will engage their skill | | life. | |
| development. | | | |
| | | So2 - By differentiating | |
| SP3 - From looking at | | project tasks for lower | |
| enrichment work, | | ability Key Stage 3 students, | |
| students can look at the | | they are able to develop | |
| amazing patterns that can | | skills such as telling the time | |
| be created by tessellation | | and working out a TV | |
| and feel in awe at how | | schedule from a magazine. | |
| complicated these can be. | | | |
| | | So1 - Students also develop | |
| | | skills for adult life in society | |
| | | such as reading timetables | |
| | | and calculating travel time. | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| 1 | | | |